

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Mina Sletto has been a life-long resident of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, though now retired, Mina's teaching career spanned several decades during which she touched the lives of thousands of South Dakotans—she not only educated; she also encouraged and extended a positive influence through her professional demeanor; and,

WHEREAS, her faith in the goodness of mankind has never failed, nor has her participation in her church where she has been a dynamic inspiration through her work with Sunday school, confirmation classes, church music, worship services, parish councils, and the wide variety of parish activities; and,

WHEREAS, Mina has given freely of her time and talents to enrich the lives of others; and,

WHEREAS, Mina's unwavering devotion to God and country is a lesson to us all:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim February 14, 1988, as in South Dakota, and it gives me the distinct pleasure to join her relatives and friends in saying, "Mange, Mange Tusen Takk."

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Ninth Day of February, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

James Hazelton
